Cathy has loved offering classes in her pottery studio to all ages since 1994. She also has been sharing the joy of painting and drawing through classes. She is dedicated to development and growth of children's art skills at all ages. She believes that creating ART should be an enjoyable experience for young children and more challenging as one matures. Therefore she provides a comfortable environment for free expression in her home studio. Pieces of art are created using high quality supplies and the encouragement and knowledge of a professional artist. Cathy's clay studio is located at 371 N. Granview Rd.
